
Dear Patient,

I've made a huge addition to my practice that is going to change the lives of you, your family, and/or your friends.

As I've treated patients through the years, I've been very satisfied with the levels of success they have had. But there has always been one thing that has concerned me.

It has become clear to me that many of my patients are in desperate need of a real, long-term solution for their weight problems.

Although I've had training on weight loss as a healthcare practitioner, I have never really found a long-lasting solution for my patients' weight issues. That is, until now!

I've been on a QUEST to discover the most effective advances for you, your family and/or your friends.

I feel like I've been back in college learning and studying heavily on weight loss, but from a totally new perspective.

I wanted to find the SECRETS TO WEIGHT LOSS. And I feel like I have!

It has made me ask, "Why hasn't anyone else been talking about this?"

Well, I've decided that I am going to talk about this!

I'm on a mission to educate all of my patients!

I want to personally invite you to join me in a FREE Breakthrough Weight Loss Seminar in my office where you, your family, and/or your friends can learn some FREE information that will finally get you on the path to lose those unwanted pounds once and for all!

"Who Else is Ready to Get Rid of Their Belly Fat?"

Your body is not like everyone else's...and there isn't a "one-size-fits-all" diet!

Those just don't work...You have specific, individual needs!

You need a weight loss program that is tailor-made for you by a healthcare practitioner.

Finally, there is someone out there that is talking about real weight loss solutions, that nobody else seems to be talking about...yet! It's time that you learned how to...
